

Intellectual property protection for trade secrets and know-how

UTEXBEL considers all information that it discloses to existing or potential customers about the results of its R&D Department (other than that which is stated in its technical product factsheets), the traceability, origin and composition (as regards raw materials) of its products, the production methods and production secrets, and its commercial know-how as know-how and business information which are regarded as trade secrets within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/943 of 08/06/2016.

By the very fact of requesting this information from NV UTEXBEL or by processing it, the customer - be he a buyer or not - expressly and irrevocably undertakes:

- to use this information solely for the purpose communicated by UTEXBEL, namely to assess conformity with the requirements that you, the customer, set for entering into one or more contracts with UTB
- to share this information only with those employees or appointees who are indispensably involved in establishing or performing said contracts and to oblige those persons to respect the confidentiality of this information
- not to disclose this information to third parties, other employees or appointees or to store it in databases, files, libraries or archives that can be consulted by such persons
- to destroy this information as soon as it is no longer needed or is no longer of any use.

By the very fact of requesting this information from NV UTEXBEL or by processing it, the requester - be he a buyer or not - waives the right to do any 'reverse engineering' himself (or to cooperate, actively or passively, directly or indirectly with third parties who perform the same).
